Semester Exam Expectations of Students and Parents

- Students do not have to report to school until a scheduled exam time.
- Teachers will not be allowed to authorize schedule changes for individual semester tests. Students will be required to take their exams during the scheduled class times. Any changes to a student's exam schedule will be made by Ms. McManus.
- Attendance is taken at each exam period. If your child is sick and unable to come for an exam, please call school first thing in the morning, 715-841-0200, and follow the same procedures as listed in the Parent-Student Handbook. Students are excused from scheduled study halls. For example, if they have Period 1 study hall, they are excused. Students are excused after their last exam each day.
- Students are not allowed to go to their lockers during testing times. Students who are not testing are not allowed in the academic wing during test times.
- All students are asked to respect silence in the halls when coming and leaving during test times.
- Lunch is not served on exam days. No food/beverages are allowed in the academic hallways/classrooms.
